CHICAGO, SATURDAY, AUGUST 21, 1897.

PRICE, 5 CTS.

GREYHURST'S GOOD RACE.

Barney Schreiber's gray gelding Greyhurst. Braw Scot's fast half brother, landed Friday's star event at Harlem, at eight and one half furlongs. He showed quality in the victory. Greyhurst shouldered 110 pounds. The task set him had a tough aspect and the ring laid eight and nine to five against the gray's chances. Judging from the race he ran, 1 to 5 would have been more in line. Greyhurst got off nicely and going to the front at once, simply galloped the entire route and won leisurely and like a gentleman.

The public always follows Schreiber's horses and the gray's victory was the most popular one of the day.

The talent fell hard over the defeat of Schiller from the Schreiber stable in the second event. It also cost the Dutchman $1500.

Zoolein's half brother, with Caywood up, was a natural odds on choice and the talent played him with confidence. Caywood rode none too good a race on him, being pocketed all the way. He finished outside the money. Schiller's a hard horse to ride. He has ideas of his own. Slaughter and he agree best.

A lot of interest was aroused over the nine furlongs selling race. There were only three starters, yet it was the prettiest and best race of the day. Sunburst was favorite at even money, Joe Clark ruled at 2 to 1 and Mandolina around 13 to 5. All were well supported and each owner was confident of winning. Burns took Joe Clark out in front early and, setting his own pace, won cleverly from Sunburst. On the far turn and for nearly a furlong the two were lapped in keen contention.

Belville, the natural favorite, easily took the first race, with the Ryan's "good thing" in the swim far back.

The two-year-old race was only a gallop for Tom Collins, and Farley at 1 to 2 merely sauntered home with the closing event.

Master Woods left last night for St. Louis to ride Eva Rice.

Senator Andrews of Los Angeles, Cal., vice President of the Pacific Coast Jockey Club, was at the track. So was Richard M. Johnson, assistant prosecuting attorney of St. Louis, the guests of Barney Schreiber.

FRIDAY'S MONTANA RACING.

BUTTE, Mont., Aug. 20.—Friday's weather and track were good, the crowd only fair and betting good, but not so heavy as yesterday. The results were:

2:14 class, trotting—Altoka won in straight heats. Time, 2:15, 2:14.

4 furlongs, 2-year-olds, running—Bottle-washer, 107 (McDonald), won; Tippet, second; None Such, third. Time, 56.

5 furlongs, running—Encino, 108 (Wilson), won; All Smoke, second; Tiger Cat, third. Time, 1:10.

7 furlongs, running—Lady Hurst, 97 (Holmes) won; Daylight, second; Allahabad, third. Time, 1:30.

3 furlongs, running—Lou Watkins, 105 (Wilson), won; Harry N, second; Rattler, third. Time, 35.

5 furlongs, running—Blue Sign, 94 (Powers) won; New Moon, second; Clan Campbell, third. Time, 1:10.

MR. WILLIAM EASTON'S SALE.

Mr. William Easton, for The Easton Company of New York, will hold a sale, as per advertisement in today's RACING FORM, next Tuesday, August 24, Futurity day. The Hurricane Stud yearlings of Messrs. S. Sanford & Sons of Amsterdam, N. Y., by Potomac and Laureate, are to be offered. With them go the Elmendorf

Stud band by Candlemas, Spokane, Owas, Little Minch and Dutch Roller.

Saturday, Sept. 4 the Elmore yearlings are to go and Monday, Sept. 5, those of the Willamette Stud of Tennessee. All are to be sold at the Easton Company paddocks opposite the sheephead Bay track.

"RACING IN CALIFORNIA."

"Racing in California" is the title of a handsome illustrated and attractive pamphlet, edited by Ben Benjamin and published by the Racing Publishing Company of San Francisco, Cal. The book is an illustrated review of racing in the Golden State. Pictures of men prominently connected with the turf in the state from its earliest days to the present time, famous California horses and cuts of the race courses add interest and value to the publication. The sketches of prominent owners and the pithy accounts of notable events in California turf history make interesting and instructive reading.

HARLEM'S CLASS IS GROWING.

The Harlem meeting sharpens as to the class of its racing daily. The horses are running more consistently at Harlem than at any track in the land. In the near future a lot of special races are to be given. Among them will be one for $3000 if the crack 3-year-olds can be gathered together. John Condon is now in the East about the track's business. J. W. Schorr, Holloway Bros., John Huffman, Baker & Gentry and G. C. Bennett already have stalls assigned. Secretary Nathanson is shy of stalls. He could use 100 more for the best stables now applying.

MONDAY'S HARLEM SALE.

The postponed sale of Woodard & Shanklin of the yearlings and horses in training owned by H. E. Leigh and the horses in the Elkon Farm Stable is to be held Monday morning in the paddock at Harlem. The offerings are the best of 1897. Among the animals to be sold are those good youngsters Presbyterian, Bonito, Our Gertie, Ben Van and Tom Toher. Among the older sale horses are Indra, Thurston, Arrezzo and Suisun. The Leigh yearlings are an especially choice lot.

Time 124, 244, 494, 1:154, 1:424.

Winner—Ch. h, 6, by Kingston—Jewelry. Start good. Woe driving. Ameers race appeared the best. He was off slowly, but Jefferson got weak handling and should have won. Kaiser sulked on the back stretch and came strong last quarter. Passover was badly bothered on the first turn, paced into deep going next the rail and came like a whirlwind lost furlong. Louise ran a fair race. Albert S dislikes a route. Scratched—Marshall, 108; Yankee Doodle, 105; Timour, 93. Overweights—Louise N, 1 pound; Sandowne, 2.

Time, 124, 244, 364, 494, 1:024.

Winner—Ch. f, by Clear the Way—Lack-a-daisy. Start straggling. Won pulled up. Daisy Cutter spreadeagled her field. Fulano ran well under a bad jockey. Chambray was off badly and made up ground throughout. He should have been an easy second. Domestic, off slowly, was unable to run much at any part. Louise Degnan was running fast through the stretch after being out of it first part. Park Slope was speedy, quit and was pulled up in the stretch. Gray Belle was in the same fix. Overweights—Domestic, 34 pounds; Regie May, 3.

833 THIRD RACE—1 Mile. $600 added. 3-year-olds. Handicap.

Time, 13, 25, 494, 1:154, 1:424.

Winner—B. c, by Masetto—The Cat. Start good. The first five were all driving hard. Thomas Cat ran a good game race and was lucky and well handled. Sheppard ran wide on first turn. This probably cost him the race. Tripping finished strong and game. Ein was squeezed out on the first turn. Under a poor ride, a wide turn on stretch bend he ran an impressive race, coming last quarter fastest of all. King jostled on back stretch, apparently out of stride, lacked brilliancy, probably racing in mud dulled his speed. Bastion was speedy for three-quarters, but quit badly through the stretch.

834 FOURTH RACE—3-4 Mile. $700 added. 2-year-olds. Handicap.

Time, 124, 244, 364, 494, 1:02, 1:144.

Winner—Br. c, by Magnetizer—Decoy. Start fair. Woe driving. Demagogue, off best, was lucky, fast and good. Cock Robin, at the weights, however, was the best. He was off slowly and running green first part made up a lot of ground from half; is very promising. Fonsavannah ran a fair race. He dislikes weight and was killed off chasing Demagogue. He finished strong and game. Nuto was short and pulled up. Previous undoubtedly was short. He quit badly after half a mile and was pulled to a walk at the end. Cherry Picker was overweighted in this company and eased last quarter. Strathmac has no class apparently. Ortolan wants stronger handling. He was outclassed. Scratched—Fleeting Gold, 100; Mont d'Or, 110.

835 FIFTH RACE—3-4 Mile. $500 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Time, 13, 244, 364, 49, 1:144.

Winner—Br. g, 3, by Rayon d'Or—She. Start good. Won easily. Hillali was easily the best. He had a big pull in the weights. Yankee Doodle ran a fine race and finished strong. Zanone is extremely faint hearted. He won't do when he doesn't outclass his lot on speed. Discount ran well. Refugee favors mud.

Start good. Won driving. Rifle was much the best ridden. The track suited him. Marshall was very poorly handled. Neumeyer was unable to do him justice in the stretch. Jockeys reversed, Marshall would have won easily. Tinge quit in the stretch. He was a good horse.
Scratched—Ben Eder, 116; Double Quick, 107.

Time, 25.50½, 1:03, 1:16½, 1:30.
Winner—Br. f. 4, by Favor—Merced.
Post 7 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second with something left, after an early drive. Third and fourth ridden out. Belville was the best. She galloped behind in the swim to the stretch turn and came on when ready. Treeby swerved a good deal under punishment at the head of the stretch and seemed to slightly interfere with Athenian and Pirate Prince. Athenian was under a stout pull to the far turn and went all to pieces when called on. In the Swim was short. She had a lot of speed but could not last over three-quarters. She should win from the same kind next out. Pirate Prince ran a poor race. The Corker acted insanely at the post.
Overweights—In the Swim, 3 pounds.

Time, 25½, 51, 1:03½, 1:16½, 1:42.
Winner—Ch. g. 8, by Fonso—Amorette.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. The first four were under keea pressure. Clay outrode the other boys a trifle. He fooled Burns by a fake drive at the head of the stretch. The latter thought Loudon was beaten and eased up on Swordsman. It cost him the race. Tony Honing ran a good race. It was form, too, considering his last performance. Caywood had Schiller in a pocket all the way. Throw his race out. The colt looks none too sound and ras as if sore on a hard track. He wants mud. Protus tired badly in the stretch. Ragner propped all the way.
Scratched—Cochina, 110; Amanda, 99.

Winner—B. c. by Newcourt—Malada.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second cleverly; third and fourth in a mild drive. It was little more than an exercise gallop for Tom Collins. He got away running. Brightie S ran to the notch. She is an honest filly and will bear watching. Effie Cline was poorly handled. She was in a pocket early and used considerably on the turn. Firelight did well. She can win a maiden race. Watch Lillian Russell in the mud. Shipman's race was disgrace. The Professor is improving. He will about do on a soft track. Ironical lacked condition and wobbled all over in the stretch. Almante finished strong. Scott was set down for his ride on Shipman.
Scratched—Joe Shelby, 105; Happy Ten, 102; Nathanson, 101; Merry Glen, 103; Globe II, 103; Raymond F, 101.

Winner—Gr. g. by Martenbush—Helen Scratch.
Post 3 minutes. Start perfect. Won cleverly. The others were driving hard. Greyhurst seemed to outclass the others. He handled the weight like a gentleman and simply galloped all the way. Woods had a good hold of the gray gelding's head the entire route, and if urged, could have perhaps run a second faster. Prince of India showed improvement over his last race. The ride on him was none too good. The Plutoerat was killed off chasing Greyhurst. He is an in and out and likes weight off better than any horse. Olivia L was outclassed and finished where she should have finished.
Scratched—Serrano, 113.

Winner—Br. c. 4, by Pirate of Penzance—Lillie B.
Post 30 seconds. Start perfect. Won well in hand; the other two were hard at it. Burns took the short route with Joe Clark, and had a good hold of his head all the way. It was a pretty contest. On the far turn a blanket would have covered the three. Sunburst ran his race and Caywood drove him hard all the way. Mandolina looked well after her rest. She had her speed, but was short.
Scratched—Nimrod, 110.

Time, 24½, 37, 49½, 1:02, 1:34.
Winner—Ch. g. 5, by Audrain—Jessie Hatcher.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second with a good deal left; third and fourth driving. Farley was in a soft spot. There was a bit of luck connected with his win. Mamie Callan was running under a strong pull on the far turn, and seemed to be able to go to Farley at any time. In the stretch, though, her saddle slipped and the boy was extremely lucky to be able to hold on the last quarter. He fell off after passing the wire, but returned with his weight. Tenole tired badly in the stretch. He could not manage the weight. Philomena showed some early speed. She pulled up a trifle lame. Faustonic was never a contender. He is a bad horse.
